VETO MESSAGE

I, Robert E. Armstrong, Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, hereby veto General Ordinance No. G-02-77 for the following reasons:

G-01-77

I believe that this ordinance is poorly timed and unnecessary. Parking meters should not be regarded as a punitive means of raising capital. They often are, by their very existence, a nuisance to parkers and a psychological detriment to parking.

They become necessary evils, however, when lack of space mandates that parkers be restricted to the amount of time during which they are allowed to "rent" a space in which to park their cars. Considering the efforts being expended by this Administration and City Council to improve the climate of Downtown Fort Wayne, it is totally inappropriate to increase the burden on users of metered parking spaces by adding additional penalties to overtime parking fines.

Adequate provisions already exist for adding penalties on those not paying their parking tickets promptly, and non-payers are liable to be taken to court which adds court costs to the amount of their fine. In short, a stricter enforcement of existing laws would make this ordinance totally unnecessary.

Finally, I am concerned that this ordinance works a hardship on many people least able to pay such additional penalties. It seems reasonable that a substantial percentage of non-payers and late payers are those who are unable to spare the cost of their fine. I simply cannot support adding the burden of additional penalties to the financial problems of those people.

I am hopeful that Council will join me in agreeing that this is an unneeded and poorly advised burden for the motorists of this community.

Signed this 17th day of January, 1977

Robert E. Armstrong
Mayor
